

IN-N-OUT BURGERS SERVED

Realtor hosts "Neighborhood Appreciation" cookout

Special to Real Estate

More than 250 "neighbors" enjoyed Realtor Mike Schmanski's annual "Neighborhood Appreciation" cookout recently held at his West Hills home.

Schmanski, of the Rodeo Realty Calabasas office, treated his neighbors by serving In-N-Out burgers as part of his tradition of giving back to his community.

"My neighbors are simply the best and it is my way of thanking them for their continued support. The smiles on their faces light up the early evening sky with gratitude and appreciation."

Neighbors appreciated the free double-double burgers and chips, as he greeted everyone in line and made everyone feel welcome and at home.

"Being consistent, regardless of the real estate market condition is what this business is all about. I am happy to have contributed to our wonderful community," he added.
