

Simi Valley City Council recognizes Rodeo Realty agents

Special to Real Estate

Rodeo Realty, Inc. sales associates Laurie Allen and Eileen Richardson were recognized by the Simi Valley City Council for "outstanding" community service, announced Rodeo Realty, Inc. Broker/Owner Syd Leibovitch and Simi Valley/Moorpark Office Manager Marie Cole.

Laurie and Eileen were honored by the City Council at the annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner, which was held Thursday, April 19th at the Boys and Girls Club in Simi Valley.

"Longtime Simi Valley residents Laurie and Eileen volunteer for many causes, including raising funds and supplies for Berylwood Elementary School, The Simi Valley Senior Center, Simi Valley athletic programs, Hurricane Katrina relief, Habitat for Humanity and many others," says Cole.

"Laurie and Eileen also hold an end-of-year home-cooked luncheon with gift certificates collected from local merchants, to honor the Crossing Guards of Simi Valley. With the school year ending soon, any merchant interested in making a donation to the Crossing Guards can contact Laurie or Eileen directly," added Cole. "They work hard to make sure that each of the Guards gets a gift certificate."

"It is very appropriate that Laurie and Eileen receive this honor by the City Council for giving back to the community," said Leibovitch. "They are just two of the exceptional agents that make Rodeo Realty, Inc. special. We continuously provide superior training in both residential and commercial real estate, and, in return, we attract some of the best agents in the area."

"Laurie and Eileen provide their clients with exceptional service and marketing. They even offer home staging to their clients when necessary. At Rodeo Realty, Inc., we believe that good enough is NEVER ENOUGH. Laurie and Eileen live up to that," Cole added.

Rodeo Realty, Inc. is the largest independent Real Estate firm in Los Angeles County, with more than 900 highly-trained, professional agents in 12 convenient branch offices in Los Angeles and Ventura Counties.

Simi Valley City Council recognizes Rodeo Realty, Inc. Agents Laurie Allen and Eileen Richardson, above, for "outstanding community service."