Paramount Rodeo Realty in Simi welcomes two to consultant team

June 18, 2006

Syd Leibovitch, President/Broker of Paramount Rodeo Realty, welcomed two agents to the Rodeo Realty real estate consultant team.

Joining the newly re-located Simi Valley/Moorpark office at 65 Tierra Rejada Road, is Vanessa McPadden and Jim Leonard.

McPadden lives in Simi Valley and transferred from a Westlake Village firm. Besides knowing the Simi Valley area she also serves clients in the Conejo area. She is a member of National Association of REALTORS® (NAR); the California Association of REALTORS® (CAR); and locally, a member of the Conejo Valley Association of REALTORS®.

McPadden saw the advantage of having the 10 office locations that Paramount Rodeo Realty has as well as a number of marketing programs available so she can better serve her clients. She can be reached at-630-6541.

Leonard, also new to the Paramount Rodeo family, specializes in private, creative and confidential real estate brokerage service. He is a longtime area resident and a native Californian with years of real estate experience. Leonard has been licensed since 1976 and a multi-million dollar producer and previous real estate company owner. He formerly was on the staff of a nationally branded real estate company in Moorpark.

Leonard likes the advantage of being with a large company, but still having the family-oriented atmosphere that Paramount Rodeo offers.

Working with a select few clients at a time so he may better serve them, Leonard can be reached at 402-6875.
